At the southern tip of Africa, you will find a natural wonder that is as dramatic as it is awe-inspiring. It is where two powerful forces, the mighty Atlantic and Indian oceans, meet. The sheer scale and natural grandeur will give you pause and a chance to reflect, leaving you inspired, exhilarated and breathless. Inspired by this special place - where the right elements of climate, natural beauty and world class winemakers combine to create wines that are crisp, refreshing and as easy drinking as the easy-going, hospitable place that it comes from. Two Oceans Wines is crafted to refresh the palate and soul.

in the vineyard : The Chenin Blanc grapes were sourced from vineyards in the Paarl and Worcester areas. Planted between 1970 and 1982, the vineyards are situated at altitudes of 130m to 180m above sea level. The Colombard and Riesling grapes were sourced from vineyards in the Robertson region.

about the harvest: The grapes were harvested by hand at 21° - 23° Balling.

in the cellar : The grapes were harvested by hand at 21° - 23° Balling. The fruit was destemmed, crushed and fermented between 13°C and 15 °C with a selection of yeast strains. Cold-fermentation for a period of two weeks ensured maximum fruit concentration.
