

Muratie Ronnie Melck Shiraz 2016

Bright and enticing, this deep ruby red wine has an abundance of spice on the nose – lots of black and white pepper with hints of dark chocolate and rich fruit cake. The palate has plenty of black plummy fruit with some prunes, smoked meats and mulberry notes, all wrapped up in silky tannins with smoky spicy oak discreetly in the background. A lengthy finish suggests this wine has plenty of potential for ageing ageing : A wonderful wine now and will improve for the next 8-10 years.

A charcuterie platter of free-range meats would be just the thing.

in the vineyard : The vineyards yield approximately 7 tons per Hectare.

about the harvest: The grapes are handpicked at optimum ripeness, then gently crushed and destalked.

in the cellar : The wine is made in traditional open fermenters which enable plunging and pump overs to be done with ease. The wine is matured for 20 months in 90% French oak (30% new) and 10% American oak barrels.
