A delicate version of Malbec in a lively and fresh style.

about the harvest: Picked by hand from our bush vine block as well as from a trellised block of grapes in Paarl at different ripeness levels between 16 and 23 February.

in the cellar : Whole bunch pressings at incremental pressure levels to slowly extract colour and clean juice which was fermented separately at 13 - 16°C to obtain lovely vibrant aromas. Extended lees contact for three months after which wine was settled clear and stabilized. Bottled end of May 2018.
