Nederburg is one of South Africa's leading wineries, with a prize-winning pedigree that stems from a culture of innovation and disciplined attention to detail. The wines are richly fruited with elegant, fresh flavours and structure, and range from exclusive, micro-edition offerings for the connoisseur to wines styled for everyday enjoyment. Talented cellar-master Lizelle Gerber leads a team of highly-skilled winemakers who work closely under her direction.

Soft and approachable premium wines inspired by more than two centuries of winemaking begun by Nederburg's founder, Philippus Wolvaart, who bought the land in Paarl in 1791.

in the vineyard : The grapes were sourced from vineyards across the Western Cape. The vines are situated on south to south-westerly facing slopes at altitudes of 60m and 80m above sea level.

The vines, grafted onto nematode-resistant rootstocks Richter 99, R110 and 101-114, received supplementary irrigation by means of overhead sprinkler system.

about the harvest: The grapes were harvested by hand and machine at 22° to 23° Balling during February and March.

in the cellar : After clarification, the juice was fermented in stainless-steel tanks at 16° C. The wine was kept on its fine lees for four months, where after the different components were blended and stabilised prior to bottling. The wine is lightly wooded.

CELLAR-MASTER: Andrea Freeborough (previous cellar-master)
