From a young age, Johanna worked in the vineyards of Muratie, but never without a song on her lips. Now happily retired, she continues to bring beauty to the farm – by arranging the flowers in the manor house and cellar. This lively and fruity yet dry rosé celebrates a tenacious woman, overflowing with personality, who embodies the honesty and passion of Muratie and its people.

in the vineyard : The vines yielded approximately 6 tonnes per hectare.

about the harvest: Grapes were carefully hand-picked in the early morning.

in the cellar : This unique rosé is made from Grenache, Mourvedre and Shiraz grapes which are gently crushed and destalked. The juice has been left on the skins for only 5 hours allowing the delicate rose petal colour extraction. Cold fermentation facilitates a slow and steady fermentation which results in the production of a fruity, yet dry rosé.
