

A Taste of Rosé

Rosé is still one of the fastest growing categories of wine. There's no doubt about it, rosé wines have sex appeal!

We have selected 6 Top South African Rosé for you to try out, and then you can come back and stock up on those you love!

variety : 0 | various

winery : wine.co.za

winemaker : various wine of origin :

analysis : alc : 0 % vol rs : 0 g/l pH : 0

type : Rose

pack : Bottle size : 750ml closure : 0

- Bellevue Rose: This Rosé shows a clear nose of citrus, apple, raspberry and strawberry./ This is followed on the palate with a fresh balance between fruit and acidity.
- Bosman Generation 8 Rose: Rosy pink with hints of strawberries and fresh spring flowers Notes of wild strawberries and cranberries with a fresh finish. The Cinsaut is evident in the structure and texture
- Chamonix Pinot Noir Rose: On release our Dry Pinot Noir shows a rose gold color, Floral aromas with scents of rose pedals and violets on the palate. It is light bodied with rich fruit sensations balanced by a natural acidity.
- Koelenbosch Dry Pinotage Rose: The nose has a concentrated red fruit, floral intensity, with a textural mid-palate, tending towards boiled sweets and candy floss, complimented by a refreshing citrus finish.
- Org de Rac Shiraz Rose: A pink/orange wine with abundant strawberry and peach flavours on the nose and generous lingering fruit on the palate. A lively companion to light meals.
- Rooderberg Rose: This attractive, deep salmon-pink rosé delights with subtle aromas of strawberry, candy floss and raspberry, as well as hints of rose petals and Turkish delight. The palate is fresh and bright, with good acidity and fruity, long finish.