

Babylonstoren Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Deep crimson red. Aromas of red plum; blueberry perfumes with hints of sweet tobacco and cedarwood shavings. A fusion of dark fruits, cherries and cassis with a velvety texture creates this soft, multi-layered wine with well-rounded tannins and a lingering finish.

Beef fillet, oxtail or even something as simple as a delicious platter of venison charcuterie.

variety : Cabernet Sauvignon | 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

winery : Babylonstoren

winemaker : Klaas Stoffberg & Charl Coetzee

wine of origin : Paarl

analysis : alc : 14.5 % vol    rs : 3.6 g/l    pH : 3.59    ta : 6 g/l type : Red    style : Dry    body : Full    taste : Fragrant pack : Bottle    size : 750ml    closure : Cork

2021 Michelangelo International Wine & Spirits Awards - Double Gold

ageing : Can be enjoyed from the year of release, with an ageing potential of up to ten years.

in the vineyard : On the slopes of the Simonsberg Mountain between the wine-growing areas of Franschhoek, Stellenbosch and Paarl, Western Cape, South Africa.

about the harvest: Grapes picked from eight different vineyard blocks.

in the cellar : Matured in a combination of 40% new and 60% second- and third-fill 300 litre oak barrels for 18 months, before being bottled and matured for three months prior to release.

Babylonstoren

Franschhoek

021 863 3852

www.babylonstoren.com

