

Wellington Wines Imprint Frizzante Blanc

Lively with fresh green apple, kiwi, and pear notes on the nose. Delectably sweet, fresh, and fruity with a fine fizz and hints of green apple and tropical fruits on the palate.

A wine perfect for any outgoing bold personality. Serve well chilled with fun-filled friends to then take things further when enjoyed with pizza, salty pretzels or on its own when the sun goes down.

Imprint is a Moscato-based wine that is low in alcohol and designed with a young wine drinking consumer in mind. Inspired by the wild flowers of the Renosterveld, the highly threatened indigenous biomes protected on our member farms, the wine is refreshing and fun, crafted in a white and pink Frizzante style.

in the cellar : Only free run juice is used during cold fermentation. Fermentation was allowed to progress until the perfect balance of natural sweetness was obtained. The wine was then stabilized, filtered and bottled with light carbonation.
