

A Taste of Pinot Noir

- Flagstone Fiona Pinot Noir : There is an explosion of mulberry, thyme and violets on the nose surrounded by smoky and earthy richness. Layers of plum, Chanterelle mushrooms and dark chocolate fills the palate. The wine show tremendous complexity and the finish are lingering and sumptuous.
- David Finlayson Pinot Noir: A fresh, modern, New World style with a nod to the complexity of Burgundy. This Pinot Noir shows ripe, fresh Raspberry, Strawberry and Vanilla notes on the nose. The palate has a touch of minerality and earthiness layered below the fresh, clean fruit.
- Bouchard Finlayson Galpin Peak Pinot Noir: A wine of substance – generously structured for the long haul. Immediately expressive succulent plum, clove and nutmeg. Well defined and concentrated black olive tapenade and cranberry tart flavours, all elegantly packaged around an ever-present kelp-like tannin. Velvety smooth finish.
- Peter Falke Pinot Noir: Beautiful ruby colour with delicate aromas of pomegranate and rhubarb with hints of spices. On the palate strawberries with a round lingering finish of cherry. An elegant wine, well balanced with subtle French Oak and red fruits.
- Old Road Elgin Pinot Noir: This wine mesmerises with layered red fruit like strawberry and cherry, wildflowers, spice, an earthy minerality and long, succulent finish
- Ghost Corner Pinot Noir: A well-crafted Pinot noir expressing wild berries and red cherries with a hint of savouriness. A creamy sensation on palate with structured tannins that ends off with a subtle earthiness.
