The Underworld thrusts a shovel into that unseen land of sticks and stones, of broken bones, the kingdom of roots. Above the ground the vines frilly dance, its buxom sun-drenched bounty is nothing without the sober grind of roots blindly winding into the Earth, the hidden hero of flavour, of place.

in the vineyard : All the components come from dryland vines with deep root systems. Each varietal and origin brings something unique to the blend: The Grenache and Carignan dominate giving freshness, bright red fruits and juiciness; whilst Paarl Mourvèdre brings the whole blend together rounding it off and providing structure and complexity.
