Frankenberg Weissburgunder 2020

Fresh brioche and butter cookies with yellow caramelised apple slices on the nose. Thoroughly smoky and buttery on the palate, yellow fruit with a hint of fine tobacco spice followed by a delicate, salty finish.

Pairs wonderfully with veal dishes, grilled poultry, crayfish and much more...

The vineyards around Frankenberg Castle were already listed in official documents centuries ago. The philosophy of our winery guarantees sustainable cultivation of the soil, careful selection during the harvest and careful use of cellar technology. This is how classic white wines full of elegance and body are created. The Schloss bottlings are drawn on Schlegel bottles, which are designed according to historical models.

in the vineyard : Lara Löw Weissburgunder selection, dry, from the Louisenberg area in Germany.
