2022 Tim Atkin SA Special Report - 91 points

South Africa's most famous home-grown grape variety has been suited to the Durbanville area for decades, the cool coastal climate bringing a ream of fresh complexity to this famous red wine. This is one of Diemersdal stalwart red wines, half of which is crafted from the oldest block of dryland bush-vines on the estate and represents a cherished part of the Louw family's wine-making heritage.

about the harvest: These grapes were harvested at optimum phenolic ripeness.

in the cellar : Grapes for this wine comes on 25 year old trellised vines. Fermented in open fermenters for 4 days at 26-28ºC. Punch through and pumped over every 3 hours. 100% MLF completed spontaneously in 225L French oak barrels.

16 months wood maturation in 40% new 225L French oak barrels.
