

Durbanville Hills Collectors Reserve Cape Garden Chenin Blanc 2021

Rich, well-integrated wood with predominantly citrus drive profile, lingering orange rind and pear flavours with tantalising stone fruit on the aftertaste.

Enjoy with a salt and pepper calamari dish, slow-braised gammon, Alfredo pasta and blue cheese dishes.

The Company's Garden in Cape Town dates back to when fresh produce and supplies were first provided to ships rounding the Cape. Although originally a vegetable garden, it was not long before the first Chenin Blanc vineyards were planted, and today, the Gardens are recognised for their contribution to the Cape's horticultural heritage. The Chenin Blanc is a true tribute to these Gardens and the origins of Chenin Blanc in the Cape of Good Hope.
