

Neil Ellis West Coast Sauvignon Blanc 2022

Tropical flavours of passion fruit and melon abound on the nose and palate, along with a hint of citrus peel and freshly cut grass. On the lingering, balanced finish, a slight tinge of sea-salt minerality conjures up the wine's coastal origin.

Fresh fish or shellfish on the braai sings in the company of West Coast Sauvignon Blanc by Neil Ellis. The bright acidity and ripe fruit flavours also complement crunchy summer salads and cheesy vegetable dishes.

There is something special about standing on the foothills of the Groenekloof gazing over the ocean as the mist dissipates from the raging south-east wind...The long dusty roads, fields of flowers and fynbos, the incredible sunsets, the harsh coastline with its many shipwrecks and squawking seagulls.

The West Coast truly engages all the senses, and it is the place where this wine legend has always felt most relaxed. The West Coast, Neil realised over time, is not just a place, but a state of mind.
