

Vergenoegd Runner Duck Sauvignon Blanc 2023

Palate: This is a bright Sauvignon Blanc bursting with tropical fruit aromas and flavours backed by gooseberry undertones on the palate. The wine ends on a satisfyingly zesty note.

This exuberant wine dances with a seafood pizza or linguine alle vongole (in your glass and in the pot with the clams too).

This is a delightful story about sustainability

A dream of doing things differently. And ducks. At Vergenoegd Löw, we've always been dedicated to great wine, innovation and environmentally friendly practices. So, when it came to protecting our precious vineyards from pests, we asked: "...is there a better way in which we can protect our delicate ecosystem... ?"

Today, our working flock of 1000 Indian Runner Ducks forage in the vineyards, happily dining on snails and keeping our terroir pest free, naturally.
