

Boplaas Stoepsit Sauvignon Blanc 2024

Fresh fruit flavours of lime and lemongrass on the nose. Lovely tangy lime-flavours with good weight and a crisp dry finish on the pallet.

The tropical fruit mélange of flavours of this Sauvignon is best paired with grilled Kabeljou and thick home-style chips, alternatively serve this wine well chilled as an aperitif or accompaniment anytime!

When you think of the houses of the quaint Karoo towns dotted along the Route 62 and beyond, one striking attribute that all share in common is the presence of a stoep or wrap-around patio. These stoeps serve as gathering places for friends, family and passers-by where stories are told, problems are solved and where you can take refuge from the day's toil.

To celebrate Boplaas's matriarch Ouma Roline's 90th vintage, her love of Sauvignon Blanc, the innumerable afternoons she's entertained friends and family on her stoep and the joy this has brought her, it is only apt that the Boplaas Sauvignon Blanc is bottled as the Boplaas Stoepsit Sauvignon Blanc.

The first Sauvignon Blanc crafted at Boplaas was in 1982 and since then Roline's son, Carel Nel, has each vintage attempted to craft the ideal "stoep" companion for his mother and her friends.
