Backsberg celebrates five generations of winemaking heritage. A celebration of summer, this fresh and juicy rosé epitomises lazy days and dappled sunrays.

in the vineyard : Heavier bearing vineyards scattered around the Cape are optimal for this delightfully bright and fresh rosé wine.

about the harvest: The fruit is cool-picked later in the harvest at 20 degrees Balling and treated similarly to a white wine.

in the cellar : Colour and primary fruit flavours are extracted from skin maceration. The grapes are then cool fermented in stainless steel tanks for early consumption
