

Nederburg Prelude 2002

An inspired blend of the two noble white varieties – Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay. The Sauvignon Blanc, which dominates in this blend on both the nose and palate, is prepared reductively and is responsible for the crispness and vitality of the wine as well as the green pepper, fig and delicate passion fruit flavours. The Chardonnay also comes through well in this blend. Nederburg Prelude 2002 is a complex wine with good structure and drinkability, supported by an excellent flavour profile, delicate barrel-fermented character and a generous mouthfeel. It is an easy drinking wine and leaves a fresh and lingering aftertaste. It can be enjoyed with seafood, fish, chicken and veal casseroles, asparagus and creamy sauces.
