As human beings we tend to define our lives in terms of great events. In 2010, to mark the birth of the first child of the next generation of the Bosman family, we endeavoured to make a red blend to celebrate and raise a flag to a bright future filled with hope.

Only made in exceptional vintages, the Erfenis red blend is our polestar, our directing principle that commemorates, defines and sets a standard for the Bosman cellar.

in the vineyard : The components for this blend are from different sites in the Bovlei near Wellington.

in the cellar : The grapes were hand-picked, hand sorted and destemmed. The juice was allowed to macerate on the grape skins for 2 days prior to alcoholic fermentation. After the onset of fermentation, regular punch downs extracted maximum colour. The wine spent a month on the skins before being pressed. The components are all treated and aged separately for 16 months. Each component undergoes a barrel selection, after which it is blended and aged for another 6 months before bottling.
