

Constantia Uitsig Semillon Reserve 2001

As the wine was aged and fermented in small French oak barrels for 12 months it has a robust toasty, buttery whiffs on the nose with a hint of citrus, developing into subtle honey on the palate and a lengthy almond aftertaste.

variety : Semillon | Semillon

winery :

winemaker : John Loubser

wine of origin : Constantia

analysis : alc : 13.5 % vol   rs : 8.1 g/l   pH : 3.10   ta : 5.9 g/l

type : White

pack : Bottle

**** John Platter

ageing : As a cultivar Semillon ages well, and the wine can be kept for 6-8 years.

about the harvest: Grapes were harvested at 23.9° Balling. Yield 6 Tonnes/Ha.

in the cellar : This wine was aged and fermented in small French Oak barrels for 12 months.