

Winds of Change Rosé 2003

A fruity Rosé with lots of fresh strawberries on the nose and palate. Light and crispy wine to be complimented by seafood and salads.

variety : |

winery : Winds of Change

winemaker : Alain Cajoux

wine of origin : Western Cape

analysis :

about the harvest: The grapes were harvested by machine in the middle of March Yield: 12 tons/ha

in the cellar : Crushing: Very gentle press

Tanks: Stainless steel

Yeast strain: Oenoferm: Saccharomyces

Fermentation:

Malolactic: yes

Barrel ageing: no

Fining: Plantis, PVPP

Filtration: Kieselguhr FW60/14, FP3/FP1

Stabilisation: Cold -4°C

