

Jacques de Savoye Barbere 2002

The result is an unwooded dry noble rose. Floral notes with red fruits on the nose and a soft, fruity and round.

variety : Merlot | 75% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon

winery : Vrede en Lust Estate

winemaker : Stephane de Saint Salvy wine of origin : Coastal analysis : alc : 14.0 % vol type : Rose style : Very Dry body : Medium taste : Fragrant

pack : Bottle

ageing : Within 2 years.

in the cellar : Prior to fermentation, a small percentage of free run juice, from the grapes destined for our red wines, is removed. The French term for this process is saignee "bleeding".