

Laibach Sweet Natural Wine 1997

This wine has a polished golden colour. On the nose one can find luscious honey, camoline and crystallised pineapple. It is filled with tropical notes and a touch of botrytis. It is rich and sweet yet it has a fresh, crisp yet lean and long finish. The sugar is well integrated by a firm acidity. Good now but will develop well over years.

in the cellar : Noble rot infected grapes were hand picked and carefully selected. After 18 hours maceration on the skins, the berries were pressed and the juice filled into 100% new French oak barrels. After fermentation was completed in barrel it was aged for 6 months. The wine was sweetened just before bottling with natural sweet reserve.
