

Glen Carlou Grand Classique 2001

Deep ruby red, intense and brilliant with aromas of cloves, sandalwood, fresh cassisberries. Ripe tannin, clean intense fruit, black berries, the taste holds in the mouth with excellent balance.

This wine follows the "classic" style blends that we have been making from our first vintage in 1989. This 2001 vintage should last for a very long time as it is perfectly balanced both analytically and in flavour, promising a great wine for years to come!
