

Kumkani Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon 2002

Deep red colour. Intense chocolate, coffee and blackberry fruit aroma gently supported by nutty, spicy oak. Rich berry fruit and chocolate dominate the palate with fine, yet firm tannins and a long chocolate-mint finish.

Mediterranean Lamb skewers, roasted potato wedges with Verjuice Aioli.

in the vineyard : Vines are grafted on rootstocks 101-14 Mgt, Richter 99 and Richter 110, depending on the potential of the soil (weathered granite) and planted on Southern slopes, facing the Atlantic Ocean. This terroir ensured a cool moderate ripening period that led to complex fruit-characteristics in the grapes. Average age of the vines differ between 9 to 30 years, with an average yield of 7 ton/ha, all of these vines are trellised on a 5-wire hedge system.

about the harvest: Grapes were harvested at 24° Balling at the end of February and early March.

in the cellar : 15 Months - 80% small French oak barrel (of which 50% was new) and 20% in small American oak barrels.
