

Mount Rozier Shiraz 2003

Best in class Gold - International Wine and Spirit Competition (IWSC) 2005

Matured in small French and American oak barrels, Lovely light bright berry fruit character with attractive peppery and black olive complexity. A well structured and full bodied wine lingers into a spicy long finish.

Excellent with fillet, roasted lamb or hearty stew.

in the vineyard : Situated on the Schaapenberg slopes, at the foothills of the majestic Hottentots Holland Mountains. The estates varying south easterly and south westerly slopes, which all lie between 120 and 270m above sea level, are cooled by fresh ocean breezes. This, combined with the gravely Oakleaf and Hutton soils creates a truly unique and exceptional micro climate.
